Lead Product Designer with 10+ years turning regulated, high-friction flows into revenue. Lifted application conversion from 51% to 79% at PayPal and 39% to 97% at Meta. I lead strategy through delivery and use AI to speed research, prototyping, and code.

Experience

Valderrama Design

Independent Product Designer

- Designed, built, and shipped an AI-powered activity reporting app for Sunshine Little House of Learning, a preschool, from research through working code. It automates real-time parent updates and end-of-day summaries and returns about 500 staff hours a year.
- Independent practice focused on AI-assisted product design: strategy, interface design, prototyping, and design-to-code with Claude, ChatGPT, Figma AI, and Google Stitch.

PayPal

Lead Product Designer · FTE

- Most senior designer on the credit team. Owned end-to-end design for merchant and consumer credit products in the US, UK, and Germany, from application to checkout, funding, and loan servicing.
- Partnered with Checkout product, design, and engineering leads to place credit offers inside purchase flows. Simplified applications across six US and UK products, raising conversion from 51% to 79% and Pay in 4 monthly payment volume 67%.
- Led all installment products in credit-averse Germany and monetized offerings that had earned no revenue. Grew Pay in 30 Days monthly payment volume 49% and PayPal Ratenzahlung annual incremental revenue 25%.
- Mentored senior designers, unblocked stalled projects, and raised design quality through critique, shared patterns, and tighter product and engineering alignment.

Oct 2016 - Apr 2024

Cisco Systems

Senior UX Designer · Design Consultant

- Led end-to-end design for Cisco's flagship mobile app. Modernized it to current accessibility and UI standards, raising user comprehension 43%.
- Co-built a scalable UI component library and UX standards for Cisco's intranet, and advised departments twice weekly in the Cisco UE Clinic.
